HOBBIES AND INTERESTS

I enjoy playing badminton because it helps me decompress and keeps me active. Music plays a significant role in my life as well; it keeps me inspired and calms me down on hectic days. Through my publications and internships, I get to write and pursue my passion for legal study. I enjoy reading history and law books in my spare time. I also often donate blood whenever I have the opportunity because I think it's important to give back to the community.
